Rob Schneider does not shy away from controversy. His show addresses many of the social matters facing society today with a hilarious twist of humor that must be experienced live. He is an accomplished actor, comedian, screenwriter and director. A stand-up comic and veteran of the award-winning NBC sketch comedy series Saturday Night Live, Schneider has gone on to a successful career in films, television and continues his word-wide standup tour.

Schneider's first Netflix comedy special, "Asian Momma, Mexican Kids," premiered globally on August 11, 2020. Filmed in February, the special gives viewers a look at Schneider's family and personal life through hilarious anecdotes.

After leaving SNL in 1994 Schneider went to roles in film and television including a starring role in the NBC sitcom "Men Behaving Badly," and starring roles in the feature films DEUCE BIGALOW: MALE GIGOLO, THE ANIMAL, THE HOT CHICK, DEUCE BIGALOW: EUROPEAN GIGALOW and THE BENCHWARMERS. DEUCE BIGALOW: MALE GIGOLO has the distinction of being the second highest grossing DVD in the US in 2000. Schneider's early film roles also include JUDGE DREDD, DEMOLITION MAN, BEVERLY HILLS HILLBILLIES and DOWN PERISCOPE. He also co-starred in numerous comedies that were some of the biggest films in the past twenty years, including GROWNUPS, THE WATERBOY, LITTLE NICKY, THE LONGEST YARD, 50 FIRST DATES, I NOW PRONOUNCE YOU CHUCK AND LARRY, YOU DON'T MESS WITH THE ZOHAN, and narrated the animated film 8 CRAZY NIGHTS. He also recently appeared in Netflix's THE WRONG MISSY and the recently released HUBIE HALLOWEEN.

On television Schneider starred in the CBS comedy "Rob," loosely based on his real life. In 2015 he produced, directed and starred in "Real Rob," that followed his life and co-starred his real-life wife Patricia and daughter Miranda for Netflix. "Real Rob" was a milestone for the comedian as he starred, directed, produced and financed the entire season. Schneider's directorial debut was the comedy BIG STAN, in which he also starred in the title role. In 2010 he released his first comedy album, "Registered Offender," a collection of audio sketches and songs. That year Schneider also revived his stand-up career with an international tour and has continued to tour nationally and internationally ever since.

About RNC Entertainment:

Founded in 2013, Rock n Concepts was created by the father-and-son duo, Ian and Steve Vaughn. As the business has expanded at a furious pace in recent years, Ian began expanding the Vision of his brand due to the active growth of Rock n Concepts in touring, promoting, production and artist management, and numerous other facets of the live entertainment industry. When COVID-19 crippled the industry, Ian and his team pulled together resources and leaned on their relationships to build an initiative to keep artists working. These initiatives rapidly expanded the brand to engagement in live streaming and numerous other segments of entertainment including T.V. and movies, all of which they participate in today.

Due to the intense growth of Rock n Concepts, the decision was made to form a new entity as a specialized artist management and promotions arm called RNC Entertainment, which provides intense focus around scaling the entertainment brand's reach.
