Dinosaurs, Country Stars, and Rock Legends: Farmington Civic Center Announces Action-Packed Spring Lineup

Farmington, NM – The Farmington Civic Center is proud to announce an eclectic lineup of spring entertainment, featuring a globe-trotting interactive dinosaur exhibit, a viral country music powerhouse, and the world's premier tribute to Elton John. This season's schedule emphasizes high-energy performances and family-friendly pricing, ensuring that the Four Corners region has access to top-tier touring acts.

"We are thrilled to host such a high caliber of talent this season while keeping our ticket prices affordable for local families," says Production Manager, Jordan Grant. "Whether you're looking for an educational afternoon with the kids or an inspiring night of music, the Civic Center is committed to being Farmington's premier destination for safe, engaging, and world-class performances."

Britnee Kellogg - April 24

- 7:30 PM
- Tickets: $16 – $28

On Friday, April 24, the Civic Center welcomes the drive and passion of Britnee Kellogg. Known for her viral iTunes success and over 19 million streams, Kellogg's journey from childhood inspiration to the national stage comes to life through her deeply personal songwriting. Whether she is performing hits from her 2024 full-length album or the songs that made her a TikTok sensation, Britnee delivers a show designed to make every listener feel seen and heard. This is an evening where the story behind the music is just as powerful as the performance itself.

Please Note: Due to a scheduling adjustment, this performance will now take place on Friday, April 24. This update supersedes the April 18 date previously listed on city marketing calendars and Civic Center postcards.

The Rocket Man Show - May 2

- 7:30 PM
- Tickets: $16 – $28

The spring series concludes with a high-octane tribute in The Rocket Man Show, starring Scotsman Rus Anderson. Hand-picked by Elton John to serve as his official 70's body double for the Farewell Yellow Brick Road world tour promotional materials, Anderson captures the essence of Elton's most iconic era. The performance features a night of greatest hits, flamboyant costumes, and the fierce piano playing that defined a generation. It is a "one night only" event that promises a giant leap for Elton John fans in Farmington.
