Albuquerque, N.M. – Price Land Development Group is proud to announce the addition of Deborah Corey to the team as Business Operations Manager and CEO Liaison. Bringing extensive experience in executive support, business operations, economic development, real estate and community engagement, Corey will help strengthen internal operations and support the company's continued growth across New Mexico.

"Deborah has a wealth of experience ranging from executive and CEO support, financial and resource management, to marketing and communications," said Garret Price, President of Price Land Development Group. "Her unique experiences across economic development, real estate and business operations make her an exceptional addition to our team."

Corey most recently served as director of operations for the Economic Forum of Albuquerque, where she oversaw day-to-day operations for nearly a decade, supported the CEO and executive leadership, and cultivated relationships with business and community leaders throughout the region.

Prior to her time at Economic Forum, Corey served as a Transaction Coordinator with RE/MAX Select – The Ortega Team, managing residential real estate transactions from contract through closing, while coordinating with everyone from buyers and sellers to lenders and inspectors.

"Deborah's history of strong judgment in high-stakes environments, adaptability and professionalism align firmly with Price Land Development Group's commitment to collaborating with our partners as we build their visions, portfolios and profits," Price said. We look forward to working with Deborah and utilizing her insight and expertise across our various projects."

Corey also has extensive experience serving as Executive Assistant/Senior Coordinator for nearly a decade at the Cabot Corporation – supporting senior leadership, business development and international client-related activities. In addition, she is a current Board Member for the New Mexico Tech Foundation.

Price Land Development Group looks forward to utilizing Corey's expertise in this new role as Business Operations Manager and CEO Liaison.
